

Call for Applicants

International Post-Doctoral Research Fellowship at the Nanzan Institute for Religion and Culture

The Nanzan Institute for Religion and Culture is happy to announce the third fellowship for one post-doctoral student who has received a PhD from a university outside of Japan in the field of religious studies with a focus on some aspect of religion in Japan. The fellowship is supported by a Nanzan University program for the promotion of global exchanges.

CONDITIONS

Period of the fellowship: 1 September 2017–31 March 2018 (7 months)

Number of recipients: 1

The fellow will receive a round-trip airplane ticket between the international airport closest to the applicant's current address and the Central Japan International Airport (Centrair).

The fellow will receive a stipend of 200,000 JPY per month during the period mentioned above.

The fellow is expected to concentrate 60% of his or her work on post-doctoral research, for which a private office will be provided in the Nanzan Institute building.

The fellow is expected to spend the other 40% on research activities of the Nanzan Institute, such as assisting editorial work for the Japanese Journal of Religious Studies and participating in research projects and meetings at the Institute.

The fellow may apply for room and board at the Paulus Heim, located near the Institute (see <http://nirc.nanzan-u.ac.jp/en/facilities/> for details).

APPLICATION

Applicants should send the following documents by e-mail attachment no later than 15 February 2017 to pswanson@nanzan-u.ac.jp and nirc-office@ic.nanzan-u.ac.jp.

- Full CV/resume, including list of publications
- Research statement explaining the theme and content of your proposed research during your stay in Japan (about 4 pages)
- Two letters of recommendation

The successful recipient will be notified by 31 March 2017.

For further information or questions, please contact Paul Swanson at pswanson@nanzan-u.ac.jp.