

REVIEWS

Nihon no Shūkyō (Japanese Religions)

Prepared by the Religious Affairs Section of Ministry of Education, Tokyo: Printing, Bureau Ministry of Finance, 1964, pp. 207. (Out of Print)

This volume contains five articles
on religion in Japan, all in Japanese:

Shinto.....by Dr. Sokyō Ono of Kokugakuin University and a director of this Institute.

Buddhismby Dr. Shoson Miyamoto, Emeritus Professor of Tokyo University.

Christianityby Dr. Arimichi
Ebizawa of Rikkyo (St. Paul's) University.

New Religious Sects..... by Dr. Rokusaburo Nieda of Waseda University.

Folk Faith.....by Dr. Ichiro Hori
of Tohoku University.

An appendix contains a valuable chronology, a list of religious bodies incorporated with the Ministry of Education, the divisions of the various sects due to the establishment of religious freedom, and condensed statistical tables.

It is regrettable that the volume is not being translated, and that only a limited number of copies were printed.

W. P. W.